(c) the Drug Enforcement Commission; and

(d) any other investigative institution that the Minister may, by statutory instrument, designate; and

“organised criminal syndicate” means a structured group of three or more persons existing for a period of time in concert with the aim of committing an offence under this Act or any other law, in order to obtain, directly or indirectly, a financial or other material benefit.

38. (1) A court may, where a person is convicted of an offence under this Part, order the restriction of the movement of that person within the Republic for a prescribed term.
2. A court may, where a person is convicted of an offence under this Part, and it appears to the court that it would be appropriate, in the interest of justice and not contrary to the broader public interest to do so —

(a) order the surrender and suspension of the convict’s passport, and in the case of a non-citizen, withdraw the convict’s visa, deport or prohibit the convict’s re-entry into the Republic;

(b) order —

(i) the disqualification, cancellation or suspension of any right in the Republic to operate a vehicle, vessel or aircraft used by the convict in connection with the commission of the offence; or

(ii) the disqualification to hold public office in the Republic by the convict;

(c) order the suspension of any licence or registration entitling the convict to carry on any trade or business carried on by the convict in connection with the commission of the offence; or

(d) recommend to the appropriate professional body the suspension or disqualification of the convict’s right to practice any profession practiced by the convict in connection with the commission of the offence, for a term that the court may consider appropriate.

3. Where a non-citizen is convicted of an offence under this Part, the court may, in addition to ordering the penalty provided for the offence or alternative sentence in this section, order the withdrawal of the person’s visa, deportation or prohibit the person’s re-entry into the Republic.

39. (1) A court may order suspension of the whole or any part of the penalties imposed on a person, on such terms and conditions considered necessary to ensure that the person does not commit a similar offence, except that it is in the interest of justice and not contrary to the broader public interest to make an order, where a person convicted of an offence under this Part is—

(a) below the age of eighteen years;

(b) a first offender;

(c) a drug abuser; or

(2) A court may, where a person fails, without reasonable excuse, to abide by the terms and conditions of a suspension order under subsection (1), revoke the order.

PART IV
DIVERSION

40. (1) A person who intends to cultivate, manufacture, produce, distribute, import, export, trade, package, repackage, transit, remove, divert, possess, consume, administer, research on, or otherwise deal with a drug or precursor chemical shall apply to the Authority or Committee where applicable for authorisation in accordance with this Act and the Medicines and Allied Substances Act, 2013, Dangerous Drugs Act and the Cannabis Act, 2021.

(2) The Authority or Committee shall, where it grants an authorisation, notify the Commission of the grant of authorisation.

41. (1) A person may bring a drug or precursor chemical into the Republic in transit if the drug or precursor chemical is in transit from a country from which it may lawfully be exported to a country into which it may lawfully be imported.

(2) Despite subsection (1), where the drug or precursor chemical comes from a country which is not party to the Convention, it shall be accompanied by the documents authorising the export or diversion.

(3) An investigating officer may seize and detain a drug or precursor chemical in transit—

(a) where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the document authorising export or diversion accompanying the drug or precursor chemical is false, or that it has been obtained by fraud or wilful misrepresentation of a material particular;

(b) where the drug or precursor chemical is not accompanied by a document authorising an export or diversion by reason of the fact that the drug comes from a country not party to the Convention; or

(c) where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the drug or precursor chemical is being conveyed in an unlawful manner or for an unlawful purpose or is in transit for the purpose of being imported into another country in contravention of the laws of that country.
(4) This section shall not apply to—

(a) a drug or precursor chemical in transit by post or air if the aircraft passes over the Republic without landing; or

(b) to quantities of a drug or precursor chemical that may reasonably form part of the medical stores of any ship or aircraft.

42. The Director-General, Deputy Director-General or an investigating officer authorised by the Director-General in that behalf, may release a drug or precursor chemical seized or detained under section 41 where the Director-General or investigating officer determines that—

(a) the document authorising the export or diversion is valid and was not obtained by fraud or wilful misrepresentation; or

(b) the drug or precursor chemical is being conveyed in a lawful manner or for a lawful purpose.

43. (1) A person shall not, except under, and in accordance with an authorisation issued by the Authority—

(a) remove a drug or precursor chemical in transit from the conveyance by which it is brought into the Republic; or

(b) move or transfer into any part of the Republic any drug or precursor chemical after its removal from a conveyance.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(3) Despite subsection (1), the Authority may, authorise the temporary removal for safe custody of quantities of drugs or precursor chemical that the Authority may determine from an aircraft or ship which is in transit in the Republic.

44. (1) A person shall not subject or cause a drug or precursor chemical in transit to be subjected to any process which may alter its nature, or wilfully open or break or otherwise tamper with any package containing a drug, or precursor chemical, except under and in accordance with an authorisation issued by the Authority.
(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

45. (1) A person shall not, without authorisation, cause or procure a drug or precursor chemical in transit through the Republic to be diverted to a destination other than that to which it was originally consigned.

(2) In the case of a drug in transit accompanied by a document authorising the export or the diversion, of that drug to the country to which the drug or precursor chemical was originally consigned shall be the country of destination.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

46. A person who intends to divert a drug or precursor chemical in transit to a destination other than that to which it was originally consigned may, with the authorisation of the Authority and in consultation with the Commission, divert a drug or precursor chemical.

47. (1) Subject to subsection (2), this Part does not apply to a drug or precursor chemical in the form of a medicinal preparation—

(a) in the possession of a person who arrives in the Republic by land, air or water from any place outside the Republic as is reasonably required for the use by the person; and

(b) which is bona fide supplied to the person by or on the prescription of a medical doctor residing outside the Republic in accordance with the law of the country in which the medicinal preparation was supplied.

(2) A person in possession of a drug or precursor chemical in the form of a medicinal preparation under subsection (1) shall, as soon as practicable on arrival, declare the person’s possession of the medicinal preparation to an officer and shall submit to a medical examination that may be required of that person.
48. The Minister responsible for health may, on recommendation from the Authority and the Commission, prescribe, by statutory instrument, in relation to an authorisation, issued under this Part—

(a) the criteria and procedure for applying for an authorisation and the grant, variation, renewal, transfer and revocation of the authorisation;

(b) the terms and conditions attaching to an authorisation and the grant, variation, refusal, renewal, transfer or revocation of an authorisation; and

(c) any other matters that are necessary or incidental to the effective regulation of authorisations.

INVESTIGATIONS

49. (1) A person who has information or reasonable grounds to believe that another person has engaged or is engaging in trafficking or a prohibited activity involving a drug or precursor chemical shall inform the Director-General.

(2) The Director-General may investigate a matter under this Act on receipt of information or on the Director-General’s own initiative.

(3) The Director-General may refer an offence that comes to its notice in the course of an investigation under subsection (2) to any other appropriate authority.

(4) A person who provides information under subsection (1) is entitled to protection as a whistle blower in accordance with section 71.

50. (1) The Director-General shall, on receipt of information under section 49, examine it and decide whether or not an investigation in relation to the allegation contained in the information is warranted.

(2) The Director-General may, in deciding whether or not to investigate the allegation, determine if—

(a) the conduct to which the allegation relates constitutes an offence under this Act; or

(b) the allegation is frivolous or vexatious.
(3) The Director-General shall, where the Director-General determines that an investigation into an allegation is warranted, carry out the investigation.

(4) The Director-General may, for purposes of performing the functions under this section—

(a) make a preliminary inquiry that the Director-General considers necessary; and

(b) consult any other appropriate authority.

(5) The Director-General shall inform a person under section 49(1), in writing, of the decision of the Commission in relation to the allegation.

51. (1) The Director-General may, by notice, in writing, require a person under investigation or any other person who the Director-General has reason to believe may have information or documents relevant to an investigation to—

(a) attend before the Director-General as may be specified in the notice;

(b) answer questions with respect to any matter or supply any information that may be relevant to the investigation; or

(c) produce for inspection any documents which are specified in the notice.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not affect a person’s rights under any other written law relating to privilege.

52. (1) Where the Director-General has reasonable grounds to suspect that in, or on, any premises there is concealed or deposited any property liable to forfeiture under this Act, or as to which an offence under this Act is reasonably suspected to have been committed, or any book or document directly or indirectly relating to, or connected with, any dealing or intended dealing, whether within or outside the Republic, in respect of any property liable to seizure or forfeiture under this Act, or which would, if carried out, be an offence under this Act, the Director-General may, by order in writing, authorise an investigating officer or police officer to—

(a) enter the premises and search for, seize and detain the property, book or document;
(b) search any person who is in, or on, the premises, and detain that person or remove the person to any place in order to facilitate the search;

(c) arrest any person who is in, or on, the premises in whose possession or control of any suspected drug or precursor chemical or any property liable to seizure or forfeiture under this Act is found, whom the officer reasonably believes to have concealed or deposited the property;

(d) break open, examine and search any article, container or receptacle; and

(e) stop, search and detain any conveyance.

(2) An investigating officer under subsection (1) may, if it is necessary to do so—

(a) break open any outer or inner door or window of any premises;

(b) forcibly enter the premises or any part of it;

(c) remove by force any obstruction to entry, search, seizure and removal; or

(d) detain any person found in, or on, the premises until the premises is searched.

(3) A drug or precursor chemical seized under subsection (1)
shall be presented to a public analyst for analytical and scientific examination.

53. (1) An investigating officer may, with a warrant, at any time—

(a) enter and search any premises or any other premises, including a private dwelling, where information or documents which may be relevant to an investigation may be kept;

(b) search any person on the premises if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has personal possession of any document or article that has a bearing on the investigation, except that a person shall only be searched by a person of the same sex;
(c) examine any document or article found on the premises that has a bearing on the investigation;

(d) require information to be given about any document or article by—

   (i) the owner of the premises;

   (ii) the person in control of the premises;

   (iii) any person who has control of the document or article; or

   (iv) any other person who may have the information;

(e) take extracts from, or make copies of, any book or document found on the premises that has a bearing on the investigation;

(f) use any computer system on the premises, or require assistance of any person on the premises to use that computer system to—

   (i) search any data contained in, or available from, the computer system;

   (ii) reproduce any record from the data;

   or

   (iii) seize any output from the computer for examination and copying; or

(g) attach and, if necessary, remove from the premises for examination and safeguarding any document or article that appears to have a bearing on the investigation.

(2) An investigating officer who removes any document or article from any premises in accordance with subsection (4)(g) shall—

   (a) issue a notice of seizure for the document or article to the owner of, or person in control of, the premises; and

   (b) return the document or article as soon as practicable after achieving the purpose for which it was removed.

(3) A person shall not—

   (a) delay or obstruct an investigating officer, in the performance of the investigating officer’s functions;
(b) refuse to give an investigating officer any reasonable assistance that the investigating officer may require for the purpose of exercising that investigating officer’s powers; or

(c) give an investigating officer false or misleading information in answer to an inquiry made by the investigating officer.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years, or to both.

(5) An investigating officer shall furnish the Director-General with a written report and any other information relating to an inspection that the Director-General may require.

(6) Nothing in this section requires a person to disclose or produce information or a document if the person would in an action in a court be entitled to refuse to disclose or produce the information or document.

54. An investigating officer may intercept any communication or postal article reasonably suspected to contain any information or substance which is likely to be relevant for the purpose of an investigation into an offence under this Act, in accordance with the Cyber Security and Cyber Crimes Act, 2021 and the Postal Services Act, 2009.

55. (1) Where the Director-General suspects on reasonable grounds that a person has committed, or is about to commit, an offence under this Act, the Director-General may give approval, in writing, for—

(a) a controlled delivery to be carried out; and

(b) specified persons or classes of persons to carry out or participate in the controlled delivery.

(2) Despite any other written law, the activities which may be undertaken in the course and purposes of a controlled delivery include —

(a) allowing any vehicle, vessel, aircraft or other means of transport to enter or leave the Republic;
(b) allowing any—

(i) drug, analogue, precursor chemical, equipment or material or other items in or on the vehicle, vessel, aircraft or other means of transport; or

(ii) tainted property to enter or leave the Republic or be delivered or collected in the Republic;

(c) using force that may be reasonable in the circumstances to enter and search the vehicle, vessel, aircraft or other means of transport;

(d) placing a tracking device on board the vehicle, vessel, aircraft or other means of transport; and

(e) allowing any person who has possession or custody of the drug, analogue, precursor chemical, equipment or material or other thing to enter or leave the Republic.

(3) Where the Director-General suspects on reasonable grounds that a person has committed, or is about to commit, an offence under this Act, the Director-General may give approval, in writing, for—

(a) undercover operations to be carried out for a specified period; and

(b) specified persons or classes of persons to carry out or participate in the undercover operations for purposes of gathering evidence relating to the commission of the offence.

(4) The Director-General may renew the approval given under subsection (3) for a period not exceeding three months.

(5) A drug, analogue, precursor chemical, equipment, material or other item imported into the Republic in the course of an approved undercover operation or controlled delivery shall, when no longer required for the purposes of the enforcement of this Act, be disposed of.

(6) Despite any other written law, an authorised participant in an undercover operation or a controlled delivery incurs no criminal liability by taking part in it in accordance with the terms of approval.
56. The Director-General or an investigating officer authorised in that behalf by the Director-General may arrest a person, without a warrant, if the Director-General or an investigating officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has committed or is about to commit an offence under this Act.

57. (1) An investigating officer may, subject to subsections (2) and (3), use a firearm issued to that investigating officer against —

(a) a person in lawful custody charged with or convicted of an offence under this Act if that person is escaping or attempting to escape;

(b) a person who, by force, rescues or attempts to rescue another person from lawful custody;

(c) any person who, by force, prevents or attempts to prevent the lawful arrest of the person or of another person, except that the investigating officer shall not use a firearm—

(i) as authorised under paragraph (a), unless the investigating officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the investigating officer cannot otherwise prevent the escape and unless the investigating officer gives a warning to the person that the investigating officer is about to use the firearm against that person and that person does not heed the warning; or

(ii) as authorised under paragraph (b) or (c), unless the investigating officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person or any other person is in danger of grievous bodily harm and that the investigating officer cannot otherwise effect the arrest or prevent the rescue.

(2) An investigating officer shall not, in the presence of the investigating officer’s superior, use a firearm against any person except under the orders of that superior.

(3) The use of a firearm under this section shall, as far as possible, be to disable and not to kill.
(4) Authority vested in an investigating officer under subsection (1) shall be in addition to and not in substitution for any authority to use a firearm vested in the investigating officer by any other written law.

58. (1) Where, in the course of an investigation into an offence under this Act, an investigating officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that any movable or immovable property is derived or acquired from trafficking or from an illegal activity, is the subject matter of an offence or is evidence relating to an offence, the investigating officer shall, with a warrant, seize the property.

(2) An investigating officer who seizes any property pursuant to subsection (1) shall prepare and sign a list of all the movable or immovable property seized under that subsection and of the places in which the property is found.

(3) An investigating officer shall serve a copy of the list under subsection (2) on the owner of the property or on the person from whom the property was seized, not later than thirty days from the date of seizure.

59. (1) An investigating officer shall effect a seizure by removing the movable property from the custody or control of the person from whom it is seized and placing it under the custody of another person or authority and at a place as the officer may determine.

(2) An investigating officer shall, where it is not practicable or otherwise not desirable to effect the removal of any property under subsection (1), leave it at the premises in which it is seized under the custody of that person that the investigating officer may determine.

(3) An investigating officer shall, where property is seized under subsection (1), make a record in writing specifying in detail the circumstances of, and the reason for, the seizure of the property and subsequent leaving of the property at the premises.

60. (1) The Director-General may, by written notice to a person who is the subject of an investigation in respect of an offence alleged or suspected to have been committed under this Act, or against whom a prosecution for an offence is instituted, direct that the person shall not dispose of, or otherwise deal with, any property specified in the notice without the consent of the Director-General.
(2) A notice issued under subsection (1) may be served by delivering it personally to the person to whom it is addressed or may, where the Director-General is satisfied that the person cannot be found, or is not in the Republic, be served on or brought to the knowledge of that person in a manner that the Director-General may direct.

(3) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall have effect from the time of service and shall continue in force for a period of nine months or until cancelled by the Director-General, whichever is earlier, except that the Director-General may issue a fresh notice on the expiry of the previous one for a further and final term of six months to facilitate the conclusion of an investigation.

(4) A person who, having been served with or having knowledge of a notice issued under subsection (1), disposes of or otherwise deals with any property specified in the notice other than in accordance with the consent of the Director-General commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years.

(5) A person aggrieved with the directive of the Director-General issued under subsection (1) may, within thirty days from the date of receipt of the notice, appeal to the High Court.

61. (1) The Director-General may, where the Director-General has reasonable grounds to believe that a third party is holding any property, including money in a bank account for or on behalf of, or to the order of, a person who is under investigation, serve a notice on the third party directing that the third party shall not dispose of, or otherwise deal with, any property specified in the notice without the consent of the Director-General.

(2) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall be served on the third party to whom it is directed and on the person being investigated.

(3) The Director-General may, in issuing a notice under this section, impose conditions that the Director-General may determine.

(4) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall have effect from the time of service on the person to whom it is addressed and shall continue in force for a period of nine months unless cancelled by the Director-General, whichever is earlier, except that the Director-General may issue a fresh notice on the expiry of the previous one for a further final term of six months to facilitate the conclusion of an investigation.
(5) A third party on whom a notice is served under subsection (1) who disposes of, or deals with, the property specified in the notice without the consent of the Director-General commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years.

(6) A third party on whom a notice is served under this section shall not dispose of, or otherwise deal with, the property specified in the notice except in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(7) A person aggrieved with the directive of the Director-General issued under subsection (1) may appeal to the High Court.

62. The disposal of recovered, seized and forfeited drugs or precursor chemicals shall be in a manner and in accordance with any relevant written law.

63. The powers of the Director-General under this Part may be exercised by the Director-General in person or by a member of staff of the Commission that may be specified by the Director-General acting in accordance with the Director-General’s special or general instructions.

64. (1) A person shall not—

(a) knowingly make, or cause to be made, to the Commission, false testimony or a false report in any material particular on any offence or matter under investigation;

(b) destroy, alter, conceal or remove any book, document, record or evidence that the person believes may be relevant to an investigation or proceeding under this Act;

(c) destroy, alter, mutilate or falsify any valuable security, account, computer system, disk, computer printout or other electronic device or any entry in any book, document, account or electronic device;

(d) knowingly mislead the Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or any investigating officer or other staff of the Commission by giving any false information or statement or making a false allegation;
(e) obstruct, insult, assault, hinder or delay an investigating officer in the lawful exercise of the powers conferred on that investigating officer under this Act;

(f) refuse or fail, without reasonable cause, to give to the Director-General or an investigating officer on request, any document or information required for purposes of this Act;

(g) fail to comply with any lawful demand of the Director-General, Deputy Director-General or an investigating officer under this Act;

(h) fail to produce, conceal or attempt to conceal any document or book in relation to which there are reasonable grounds to believe is used to commit an offence;

(i) destroy anything to prevent the seizure of any property or document or securing of the property or document; or

(j) without lawful authority or reasonable excuse, disclose to another person who is the subject of an investigation under this Act that the person is under investigation or the details of any investigation;

(k) while at any Drug Enforcement Commission premises, conduct oneself in a riotous, indecent, disorderly or insulting manner.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

PART VI
EVIDENCE, PRESUMPTIONS AND OTHER MATTERS

65. Where in the prosecution of a person for an offence under this Act it is proved that the following was found on a child, any animal, vehicle, vessel or aircraft and that the accused person was at the time on or in charge of the animal, vehicle, vessel or aircraft or in any place under the control or supervision of the accused person, or on the accused person, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the accused person was found in possession of the drug, plant, instrument, utensil, precursor chemical, equipment, material or analogue:
(a) a drug;
(b) a plant which can be used or consumed as a drug or from which a drug can be extracted;
(c) a precursor chemical, equipment or material for the unlawful cultivation, production or manufacture of a drug;
(d) an instrument or utensil used in administering a drug; or
(e) any other thing used for the commission of an offence under this Act.

66. Where in the prosecution of an offence under this Act, it is proved that a sample which was taken from any drug or precursor chemical possess particular properties, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the drug or precursor chemical possesses the same properties as the sample.

67. (1) Where in the prosecution of a person for an offence under section 18 it is proved that the accused person was found in unlawful possession of a drug or precursor chemical, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the possession was for the purpose of trafficking.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, where a person has in the person’s possession whether for the purpose of importing into or exporting from the Republic or not; or imports into or exports from the Republic a prescribed quantity of a drug or precursor chemical, it shall be presumed until the contrary is proved, that the possession, import, export, intended import or intended export, is for the purpose of trafficking.

68. Where a substance is mixed with a drug or precursor chemical, the weight of the substance after measuring shall be the total weight of the drug or precursor chemical unless the contrary is proven.

69. A certificate purporting to be issued by, or on behalf of, a foreign state to the effect that the import or export of a drug, precursor chemical, equipment, material, instrument or utensil is prohibited by the law of that State shall, for the purpose of any proceedings under this Act, be prima facie evidence of the matters stated therein.
70. (1) Subject to the Plea Negotiations and Agreements Act, 2010, the Director of Public Prosecutions may, at any time, with a view to obtaining at a trial the evidence of any person directly or indirectly concerned with or privy to an offence under Part IV, tender indemnity to that person on condition that the person makes a full and true disclosure of all facts or circumstances within that person’s knowledge relating to the offence and to every other person involved in the commission of the offence, whether as principal or in any other capacity, together with the delivery up of any document or thing constituting evidence or corroboration of the commission of the offence by the person to be charged or the accused person.

(2) A court shall record in the manner prescribed by the Criminal Procedure Code the evidence on oath of a person accepting indemnity under subsection (1) and shall transmit the record of the evidence to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(3) A person accepting indemnity under this section shall be examined as a witness at the trial.

(4) Where a person who has accepted indemnity under this section has, either by wilfully concealing anything material to the case, or by giving false evidence, not complied with the condition on which the indemnity was made, that person may be prosecuted for the offence in respect of which the indemnity was tendered or for any other offence of which the person appears to be guilty in connection with the same matter.

(5) A person to whom indemnity is made under subsection (1) who, in the opinion of the court has made a true and full disclosure of all things as to which that person is lawfully examined shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity under the hand of the Director of Public Prosecutions stating that the person has made a true and full disclosure of all things as to which the person was examined, and the certificate shall be a bar to any legal proceedings against the person in respect of all those things.

71. (1) The Public Interest Disclosure (Protection of Whistle blowers) Act, 2010, shall apply in relation to the protection of whistle blowers and other related matters.
Despite subsection (1), where it appears to the Director-General that as a result of assisting the Commission or the court, the safety of a witness, expert, victim or other person may be prejudiced or the witness, expert, victim or other person may be subject to threats, intimidation or harassment, the Director-General shall make arrangements that are necessary to protect—

(a) the safety of such witness, expert or victim; or

(b) any other person from threats, intimidation or harassment.

For the purposes of subsection (2), “assisting the Commission or court” includes—

(a) appearance or impending appearance before the Commission or the court to give evidence or produce a document or other thing;

(b) production or proposed production of a document or other thing to the Commission or the court under this Act; or

(c) assisting or having assisted the Commission or the court in some other manner in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

The Director-General may, in providing the arrangements under subsection (2), collaborate with other law enforcement agencies and authorities.

The law enforcement agencies and authorities shall, as far as reasonably possible, assist the Director-General in the provision of arrangements for the protection of the persons under subsection (2).

Subject to subsection (1), in any trial for an offence under this Act, a witness shall not be obliged to—

(a) disclose the identity or address of an informer or person assisting or who assisted the Commission in an investigation into an alleged or suspected offence under this Act; or

(b) state any matter which may disclose the identity or address of an informer or person referred to in paragraph (a).
(7) Where any document which is in evidence or liable to inspection in any civil or criminal proceeding under this Act contains any entry or passage in which an informer is named or described or which might lead to the person’s discovery, the court before which the proceedings is held shall cause that entry or passage to be concealed from view or to be obliterated in a manner that, in the opinion of the court, shall not disclose the identity of the informer.

(8) An action or proceeding, including disciplinary action, shall not be instituted or maintained against a witness, expert, victim or other person who, in good faith, assists, or discloses information to, the Commission or the court.

(9) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

72. (1) The Forfeiture of Proceeds of Crime Act, 2010, shall apply in relation to the seizure and forfeiture of any proceeds or property acquired through drug trafficking or prohibited activities involving drugs or precursor chemical by any person and any other related matters.

(2) Any property which is forfeited to the State in terms of subsection (1) may be disposed of by the Commission in accordance with the Public Finance Management Act, 2018.

73. For the purposes of any proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act, the court may admit affidavit evidence, at any stage of the proceedings and the same shall be prima facie evidence, except that the deponent may be summoned for cross-examination.

74. (1) A person shall not, without lawful authority, use, take or dispose of any property drug or precursor chemical or any sample thereof which is seized or forfeited under this Act.

(2) A person shall not tamper with, or falsify the results of, any analysis with the intention of interfering with the proper course of justice.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.
PART VII
DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION, TREATMENT AND REHABILITATION

75. The Commission shall, in consultation with an appropriate authority, develop and implement strategies for carrying out national campaigns to educate the public on the dangers relating to abuse of drugs or precursor chemicals and other substances.

76. A person shall not operate a drug treatment and rehabilitation centre without authority from the Council.

77. A person is eligible to undergo treatment at a treatment and rehabilitation centre or health facility if —

(a) the person is charged with an offence, under this Act or any other written law;

(b) the person walks in voluntarily;

(c) the person is brought in by another person;

(d) the person’s drug dependency contributed to the commission of an offence;

(e) the facts alleged in connection with the offence, combined with any previous criminal record of the person and any other relevant information available to the court, indicate that it is likely that the person shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a minimum term of one year;

(f) the person is a child in conflict with the law who is drug dependent; or

(g) the person satisfied any other criteria as may be prescribed under this Act.

78. The Commission may refer a person to a health facility to undergo treatment and rehabilitation if the person is a drug dependent person.

79. (1) A court may, where it convicts a person for an offence under this Act and it is satisfied that the person is addicted to a drug order that the person be sent to a treatment and rehabilitation centre.
(2) A person who is sent to a treatment and rehabilitation centre under subsection (1) shall have the time spent at the treatment and rehabilitation centre taken into account for the purposes of remission of a sentence imposed by the court.

80. (1) As soon as may be reasonably practicable after the termination of a treatment programme of a person, the person shall be brought before the court to be dealt with in accordance with this section.

(2) A court shall, where it terminates a treatment programme of a person, reconsider the person’s initial sentence, taking into consideration—

(a) the nature of the person’s participation in the treatment programme; and

(b) any sanctions that are imposed on the person during the treatment programme.

(3) A court shall, after considering a person’s initial sentence, determine the person’s final sentence—

(a) by making an order setting aside the initial sentence and discharging the person, either unconditionally or conditionally, on conditions that the court may impose;

(b) by making an order setting aside the initial sentence deferring the passing of sentence and releasing the person conditionally on conditions that the court may impose;

(c) by making an order setting aside the initial sentence and imposing instead any sentence that it could have been imposed for the offence to which the initial sentence related; or

(d) by making an order confirming the initial sentence.

(4) Where a person is discharged unconditionally under subsection (3)(a), the conviction in respect of the offence concerned shall not form part of the person’s criminal record.

(5) The final sentence determined for a person in relation to an offence is not to be greater than the initial sentence imposed on the person in relation to that offence.
PART VIII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

81. A court shall not grant bail in respect of an offence under section 15, 16 or 17.

82. (1) Where property which is seized under this Act is subject to speedy and natural decay, and it is proved on oath to a magistrate that in fact or according to reasonable suspicion, the property was used in, or in connection with, the commission of an offence by or in respect of which an offence is committed, the court may order that the property be sold or otherwise disposed of but shall order the proceeds of that sale to be paid into the general revenues of the Republic.

(2) Where it is proved on oath or on reasonable suspicion to a magistrate that any abandoned property was used in, or in connection with, the commission of an offence by or in respect of which an offence was or has been committed or was about to be committed remains unclaimed for a period of six months or more, the court may order that the property be sold or otherwise be disposed of and shall order that the proceeds of that sale be paid into the general revenues of the Republic.

83. (1) Where any property is seized under this Act, the property shall become forfeited immediately on the expiration of the period of six months if—

(a) no prosecution for any offence under any written law is instituted with regard to the property;

(b) no claim in writing is made by any person that the person is lawfully entitled to the property or that it is not liable to forfeiture under this Act; or

(c) no proceedings are commenced by the Commission, within six months from seizure, for the forfeiture of the property.

(2) The Director-General may, where within six months from the date of the seizure of any property under this Act, a claim in writing is made by any person in terms of subsection (1)(b)—

(a) may order the release of the property to the claimant if the Director-General is satisfied that there is no dispute as to the ownership of the property and that it is not liable to forfeiture; or
(b) if the Director-General is satisfied that there is a dispute as to the ownership of the property or is doubtful as to the person who owns it, or whether it is liable to forfeiture, the Director-General shall, within fourteen days after the expiry of the period of six months, refer the claim to the High Court for its decision.

(3) This section shall be without prejudice to the power of an officer or police officer to release from seizure any property under section 52.

84. (1) Unless the conservation of the drug or precursor chemical is essential for the proceedings, a court shall order the immediate destruction of the drug or precursor chemical.

(2) Drugs or precursor chemicals that are usable in the pharmaceutical industry or another industry, depending on the nature of the substance may be disposed of by their supply to a public or private body authorised to utilise or export them.

(3) If the conservation of a drug or precursor chemicals is deemed essential for the proceedings, their disposal or destruction shall be carried out as soon as the decision ordering their confiscation becomes final.

(4) Any cases of disposal and destruction shall be certified by a report stating precisely which sealed containers have been disposed of or destroyed and the labels on the containers or the particulars entered on their wrappings, if any, shall be annexed to the report, which shall be signed by all the persons who took part in, or were present at, the disposal or destruction.

85. The Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters Act applies to offences under this Act, except where the provisions of that Act are inconsistent with this Act.

86. A person convicted on a second or subsequent offence for trafficking is liable to imprisonment for a term of not less than ten years.

87. An offence under this Act shall be deemed to be an extraditable offence for the purposes of the Extradition Act.
88. The Commission may, by statutory instrument, make Rules for the —

(a) appointment and termination of appointment of staff of the Commission;

(b) disciplinary control of persons holding or acting in any office; and

(c) practice and procedure of the Commission in the exercise of its functions under this Act.

89. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Commission, make Regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

(2) Despite the generality of subsection (1), the Regulations made under subsection (2) may provide for—

(a) the prevention of the commission of offences under this Act;

(b) the amendment of the Schedules;

(c) the procedure for lodging and dealing with complaints;

(d) the procedure for declaration of interest and assets by the Director-General, Deputy Director-General and officers of the Commission;

(e) anti-trafficking strategies in private and public bodies and special measures for children and youths;

(f) the form of oaths to be declared under this Act;

(g) the establishment, composition, tenure, procedure and any other matters in respect of committees;

(h) the establishment and management of treatment and rehabilitation centres; and

(i) generally the carrying into effect of the purposes of this Act.

90. The Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1993, is repealed.
91. (1) The Director-General under the repealed Act shall continue to be an officer or employee of the Commission, as if appointed or employed under this Act.

(2) The service of members of staff of the Commission under the repealed Act shall be treated as continuous service.

(3) Nothing in this Act affects the rights and liabilities of any person employed or appointed by the Commission before the commencement date.
FIRST SCHEDULE

(Sections 3 (2) and 5 (4))

ADMINISTRATION OF COMMISSION AND STAFF BOARD

PART I

STAFF BOARD OF COMMISSION

1. A member of the Staff Board shall hold office for a term of two years and may be reappointed for a further term of two years.

2. (1) The Staff Board may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, establish committees as it considers necessary and delegate to any of those committees functions that the Staff Board considers fit.

   (2) Subject to any specific or general direction of the Board, a committee may regulate its own procedure.

3. (1) A person who is present at a meeting of the Staff Board or any committee at which any matter is the subject of consideration, and in which matter that person or that person’s relative or associate is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, declare such interest and shall not, unless the Staff Board or the committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question relating to that matter.

   (2) A disclosure of interest made under subparagraph (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

4. (1) A person shall not, without the consent, in writing, given by or on behalf of the Committee, otherwise than in the course of the duties of that person, publish or disclose to any other person, the contents of any document, communication or information, which relates to, or which has come to the knowledge of that person in the course of that person’s duties under this Act.

   (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.
5. An action or other proceeding shall not lie or be instituted against a member of the Staff Board, a member of a committee of the Staff Board or a member of staff of the Staff Board for or in respect of an act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or performance of any of the powers, functions or duties conferred under this Act.

PART II

(2) The Commission may, subject to the approval of the Minister responsible for finance—

   (a) accept monies by way of grants or donations from any source within or outside Zambia; and

   (b) raise by way of loans or otherwise, such monies as it may require for the performance of the Commission’s functions.

(3) There shall be paid from the funds of the Commission—

   (a) the emoluments of the staff of the Commission;

   (b) such reasonable travelling and other allowances for the members of the staff at rates that the Emoluments Commission may, on the recommendation of the Minister, determine; and

   (c) any other expenses incurred by the Commission in the performance of its functions under this Act.

(4) The Commission may, subject to the approval of the Minister, invest in a manner that it considers appropriate funds of the Commission which it does not immediately require for the discharge of its functions.

7. The financial year of the Commission shall be a period of twelve months ending on 31st December in each year.
8. (1) The Commission shall cause to be kept proper books of account and other records relating to its accounts.

(2) The accounts of the Commission shall be audited annually by the Auditor-General or an auditor appointed by the Auditor-General.

(3) The Auditor-General’s fees shall be paid by the Commission.

9. (1) As soon as practicable, but not later than ninety days after the end of the financial year, the Commission shall submit to the Minister a report concerning its activities during that financial year.

(2) The report referred to in subparagraph (1) shall include information on the financial affairs of the Commission and there shall be appended to that report—

   (a) an audited statement of financial position;

   (b) an audited statement of comprehensive income; and

   (c) such other information as the President may require.

(3) The Minister shall, not later than seven days after the first sitting of the National Assembly next after receipt of the report referred to in subparagraph (1), lay the report before the National Assembly.
SECOND SCHEDULE

(Section 2 and 16)

Narcotic Drugs

- Acetorphine
- Acetyl alpha methyl fentanyl
- Alphacetylmethadol
- Alpha methylfentanyl
- Acetyldihydrocodeine
- Acetylmethadol
- Alfentanil
- Allylprodine
- Alphameprodine
- Alphamethadol
- Alphamethylthiofentanyl
- Alphaprodine
- Anileridine
- Beta hydroxyfentanyl
- Beta hydroxy methyl 3 fentanyl
- Benzethidine
- Benzylmorphine
- Betacetylmethadol
- Betameprodine
- Betamethadol
- Betaprodine
- Bezitramide
- Coca (leaf)
- Cocaine
- Clonitazene
- Codeine
- Codeine
- Codoxime
- Concentrate of poppy straw
- Desomorphine
- Dextromoramide
- Dextropropoxyphene
- Diampromide
- Diethyldihydrocodeine
- Dihydrocodeine
- Dihydroetorphine
- Dihydromorphone
- Dimenoxadol
- Dimepeptanol
Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances

- Dimethylthiambutene
- Dioxaphetyl butyrate
- Diphenoxylate
- Dipipanone
- Drotebanol
- Ecgonine, its esters and derivatives
- Ethylmethylthiambutene
- Ethylmorphine
- Etonitazene
- Etorphine
- Etoxeridine
- Fentanyl
- Furethidine
- Heroin
- Hydrocodone
- Hydromorphinol
- Hydromorphone
- Hydroxypethidine
- Isomethadone
- Ketobemidone
- Levomethorphan
- Levomoramide
- Levophenacylmorphan
- Levorphanol
- Metazocine
- Methadone
- Methadone intermediate (4 cyano 2 dimethylamino 4, 4 diphenylbutane)
- Methyldesorphine
- Methylidihydromorphine
- Methyl 3 fentanyl
- Methyl 3 thio fentanyl
- Metopon
- Moramide
- Morheridine
- Morphine
- Morphine methobromide
- MPPP
- Para fluorofentanyl
- PEPAP
- Thiofentanyl and
- Other pentavalent nitrogen morphine
Derivatives
- Morphine N oxide
- Myrophine
- Nicocodine
- Nicodicodine
- Nicomorphine
- Norcodeine
- Noracymethadol
- Norlevorphanol
- Normethadone
- Normorphine
- Norpipanone
- Opium
- Oripavine
- Oxycodone
- Oxymorphone
- Pethidine
- Pethidine intermediate A (4 cyano 1 methyl 4 phenyl piperidine)
- Pethidine intermediate B (4 phenylpiperidine 4 carboxylic acid ethyl ester)
- Pethidine intermediate C (1 methyl 4 phenylpiperidine-4 carboxylic acid)
- Phenadoxone
- Phenampromide
- Phenazocine
- Phenomorphan
- Phenoperidine
- Pholcodine
- Piminodine
- Piritramide
- Proheptazine
- Properidine
- Propiram
- Racemethorphan
- Racemoramide
- Racemorphan
- Remifentanil
- Sufentanil
- Thebacon
- Thebaine
- Tilidine
- Trimeperidine
THIRD SCHEDULE

(Section 2 and 16)

Psychotropic Substances

- Allobarbital
- Alprazolam
- Aminorex
- Amobarbital
- Amphetamine
- Amphepramone
- Barbital
- Benzphetamine
- Brolamphetamine
- Bromazepam
- Brotizolam
- Buprenorphine
- Butalbital
- Butobarbital
- Camazepam
- Cathine
- Cathinone
- Chlordiazepoxide
- Clobazam
- Clonazepam
- Clorazepate
- Clotiazepam
- Cloxazolam
- Cyclobarbital
- Delorazepam
- DET
- DMA
- DMHP
- DMT
- Dexamphetamine
- Diazepam
- DOET
- Estazolam
- Etizolam
- Ethchlorvynol
- Ethinamate
- Etilamphetamine
- Eticyclidine
- Ethyl loflazepate
- Etryptamine
- Fencamfamine
- Fenetylline
- Fenproporex
- Flualprazolam
- Fludiazepam
- Flurazepam
- Flunitrazepam
- Glutethimide
- Halazepam
- Haloxazolam
- Ketazolam
- Levamphetamine
- Loprazolam
- Lorazepam
- Lormetazepam
- (+)-Lysergide
- Mazindol
- Mecloqualone
- Medazepam
- MDA
- MDMA
- Mefenorex
- MMDA
- Meprobamate
- Mescaline
- Methyl-4-aminorex
- Mesocarb
- Methcathinone
- Methamphetamine
- Methamphetamine racemate
- Methaqualone
- Methylphenidate
- Methylphenobarbital
- Methylpyrilon
- Midazolam
- N-ethyl MDA
- N-hydroxy MDA
- Nimetazepam
- Nitrazepam
- Nordazepam
- Oxazepam
- Oxazolam
- Parahexyl
- Pemoline
- PMA
- Pentazocine
- Pentobarbital
- Phenazepam
- Phencyclidine
- Phenmetrazine
- Phenmetrazine
- Phenobarbital or Phenobarbitone
- Phentermine
- Pinazepam
- Pipradrol
- Prazepam
- Products of Cannabis containing more than 0.3 percent Delta-9-Tetrahydrocannabinol, (THC)
  (i) Herbal products known as Marijuana;
  (ii) Cannabis resins or hashish cake;
  (iii) Cannabis oil or hashish oil; and
  (iv) any other cannabis products
- Psilocine, psilotsin
- Psilocybine
- Pyrovalerone
- Rolicyclidine
- Secobarbital
- STP, DOM
- Temazepam
- TMA
- Tenamphetamine
- Tenocyclidine
- Tetrahydrocannabinol
- Tetrazepam
- Triazolam
- Vinylbital
- Zipeprol

- The isomers, unless specifically excepted, of the drugs in these Schedules whenever the existence of such isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation;

- The esters and ethers, of the drugs in these Schedules whenever the existence of such esters or ethers is possible.

The salts of the drugs listed in these Schedules, including the salts of esters, ethers and isomers as provided above whenever the existence of such salts is.
FOURTH SCHEDULE
(Section 26(1))
PREPARATIONS

Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any of the following limited quantities of narcotic drugs, which shall include one or more non-narcotic active medicinal ingredients in sufficient proportion to confer on the compound, mixture, or preparation valuable medicinal qualities other than those possessed by the narcotic drug alone:

1. Not more than 200 milligrams of codeine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.
2. Not more than 100 milligrams of dihydrocodeine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.
3. Not more than 100 milligrams of ethylmorphine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.
4. Not more than 2.5 milligrams of diphenoxylate and not less than 25 micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit.
5. Not more than 100 milligrams of opium per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.
FIFTH SCHEDULE

(Section 2 and 16)

PRECURSOR CHEMICALS

- The following substances, designated by their international non-proprietary names used in the international conventions in force;
- The salts of these substances, whenever the existence of such salts is possible, with the exception of sulphuric acid and hydrochloric acid.

DIVISION I

(Table I of the 1988 Convention)

- Ephedrine
- Ergometrine
- Ergotamine
- Lysergic acid
- 1-phenyl-2-propanone
- Pseudoephedrine
