Consular Report of Death Abroad

What is a Consular Report of Death Abroad?

The Consular Report of Death of an American Citizen Abroad (CRODA) is a report that provides the essential facts concerning the death of a U.S. citizen, disposition of remains, and custody of the personal effects of a deceased citizen. This form is generally used in legal proceedings in the United States in lieu of the foreign death certificate.

The Embassy-issued CRODA is based on the foreign death certificate and cannot be completed until the death has been registered in Nicaragua and a death certificate has been issued by the Civil Registry of the municipality where the death took place.

What is the Role of the U.S. Embassy When a U.S. Citizen Dies Abroad?

When a U.S. citizen dies abroad and the death is reported to the Embassy, Consular Officers:

- Confirm the death, identity, and U.S. citizenship of the deceased.
- Attempt to locate and notify the next-of-kin.
- Coordinate with the legal representative regarding the disposition of the remains and the personal effects of the deceased.
- Provide guidance on forwarding funds to cover costs.
- Serve as provisional conservator of the estate if there is no legal representative in the country.
- Prepare documents for the disposition of the remains in accordance with instructions from the next-of-kin or legal representative.
- Oversee the performance of the disposition of the remains and the distribution of the effects of the deceased.
- Send signed copies of the Consular Report of Death of a U.S. Citizen Abroad to the next-of-kin or legal representative for possible use in settling estate matters in the United States.
How to Register a U.S. Citizen Death:

To register the death of a U.S. citizen in Nicaragua, you or your legal agent (the Nicaraguan funeral home, for example) will need to do the following:

- Register the Death Certificate issued by the Ministry of Health with the Civil Registry (City Hall).
- Send an email to acsmanagua@state.gov requesting an appointment and bring the following documents:
  - Copy of death certificate issued by the Ministry of Health
  - Original, registered death certificate issued by the Civil Registry
  - Deceased U.S. citizen’s passport (if applicable)
  - Deceased U.S. citizen’s naturalization or citizenship certificate, if dual national (if applicable)
  - Deceased U.S. citizen’s social security card (if applicable)

The Consular Section will issue twenty (20) original official reports of death for family members and will send copies to the Department of State, the Social Security Administration, and the Veterans Administration.
All individuals, regardless of nationality, who desire to be married in Nicaragua must comply with Nicaraguan law. There are no provisions for American, Diplomatic or Consular Officers to perform marriages in Nicaragua. In addition, marriages may not be performed at the U.S. Embassy.

In Nicaragua, a civil process is required in order to legalize the marriage. Religious ceremonies may also be performed, but they are not legally recognized. Religious ceremonies alone are not considered legally binding. The Civil Registry Office contains all the required forms and pertinent procedural information necessary to be married in Nicaragua.

U.S. citizens intending to marry in Nicaragua should consult a lawyer or visit the Civil Registry Office where they live to obtain a list of the documents required for the marriage to be legally registered.

The following information and document requirements will help guide you in the marriage process. Please make sure to obtain the most up to date information from the Civil Registry Office since requirements, procedures, and costs are subject to change.

General Information

- The minimum age for marriage is 18 years.
- After the legal ceremony is celebrated, the marriage has to be filed in the local registry.
- Your marriage does not have to be registered at our Embassy. Once it is registered you obtain the marriage certificate it is legal.

Documents

- Birth Certificate: The U.S. Embassy does not provide birth certificates. This must be requested at your city/state registry.
- Evidence of termination of prior marriage (if applicable): If you are divorced or widowed, you may be required to present previous marriage, divorce or death certificates as applicable. The local authorities might request the documents to be apostilled. Our Embassy cannot issue apostilles.
- Evidence of single marital status: Generally the Civil Registry Office will accept evidence in the form of an affidavit sworn at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate in which you declare your marital status as “single.” The service fee is US$ 50.00 payable in cash and you must present your U.S. passport (See page # 4)

Massage for U.S. Citizens: EARTHQUAKE Preparedness

Nicaragua is prone to natural disasters, such as earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, and hurricanes. The U.S. Mission in Nicaragua reminds U.S. citizens of the importance of preparing for potential crises before they occur and offers the following suggestions to ensure you and your family are ready.

Before an Earthquake: Be Prepared Stock your home with supplies that may be needed during an emergency period. An extensive list of suggested items can be found at www.ready.gov. At a minimum, your emergency kit should include:

- A 3-5-day supply of water (about five gallons per person) and non-perishable food.
- A first aid kit.
- A battery-powered radio, flashlights, and extra batteries.
- Prescription medicines and needs for special medical conditions.
- Baby food and/or prepared formula, diapers, and other baby supplies.
- Disposable cleaning clothes and personal hygiene supplies, such as soap, toothpaste, sanitary napkins, etc.
- Cell phone with chargers and a backup battery.
- An emergency kit for your car with food, flares, booster cables, maps, tools, a first aid kit, fire extinguisher, sleeping bags, etc.
- Personal documents, including passports, birth abroad certificates for children born overseas, medical, vaccination, and school records, cash, credit cards, and a card with local translations of basic terms. If you have pets, be sure to have their vaccination records.

Prepare your family in advance by taking the following steps:

- Choose a safe place in every room—under a sturdy table or desk or against an inside wall, preferably in the corner of the room, where nothing can fall on you.
- Practice COVER AND HOLD ON at least twice a year. Drop under a sturdy desk or table, hold on, and protect your eyes by pressing your face against your arm. If there is no table or desk nearby, sit on the floor against an interior wall away from windows, bookcases, or tall furniture that could fall on you. Teach children to COVER AND HOLD ON.
- Prepare written instructions for how to turn off gas, electricity, and water if advised to do so.
- Inform domestic staff, babysitters, and caregivers of safe places in your residence and your earthquake plan.
- Devise an emergency communication plan for contacting family and friends in the event of an earthquake.

During an earthquake: COVER AND HOLD ON

- Move only a few steps to a nearby safe place. If you are indoors, stay indoors until the shaking stops and you are sure it is safe to exit the structure. Stay away from windows. In a multistory building, expect the fire alarms and sprinklers to activate during a quake.
- If you are in bed, hold on and stay there, protecting your head with a pillow. If there are tall bookcases or other furniture items that could fall on you, move away from them.
- If you are outdoors, find a clear spot away from buildings, trees, and power lines. Drop to the ground.
- If you are in a car, slow down and drive to a clear place (as described above). Stay in the car until the shaking stops.
U.S. Citizens: EARTHQUAKE Preparedness Continued...

After an earthquake: Stay Safe

• If trapped under debris, cover your mouth with a handkerchief or clothing, try not to move around and kick up dust, do not light matches or use a lighter, and tap on a pipe or wall so rescuers can locate you. Shout only as a last resort. Shouting will bring harmful dust into your lungs and reduce your strength.
• If you can move, check yourself for injuries. Protect yourself from further danger by putting on long pants, a long-sleeved shirt, sturdy shoes, and work gloves.
• Check others for injuries. Give first aid for serious injuries.
• Look for and extinguish small fires. Eliminate fire hazards. Turn off the gas if you smell gas or think it is leaking.
• Tune into local television for updates or check Nicaragua’s national weather and geographical authority. Also, information about the Nicaraguan disaster alert system can be found here.
• Expect aftershocks. Each time you feel one COVER AND HOLD ON!
• Inspect your home for damage. Get everyone out if your home is unsafe.
• Use the telephone only to report life-threatening emergencies.

Other tips

We recommend making sure you have health insurance whenever you are traveling abroad. For more information, see Insurance Providers for Overseas Coverage.

Coming Soon: Online Fee Payment for Adult Passport Renewals

Currently, all U.S. passport applicants in Nicaragua must arrange for in-person payment of their passport renewal fee at the U.S. Embassy in Managua. We understand that this situation is inconvenient for U.S. citizens residing outside Managua and have been working on a solution.

The Department of State is pleased to announce that U.S. Embassy Managua will soon begin supporting online payment for adult passport renewal fees. Qualified applicants will no longer need to make an interview appointment at the U.S. Embassy. The program is expected to begin in the next few weeks. We will send out an announcement when this online payment becomes available, along with specific instructions to help you confirm your eligibility to use this payment option.
